The Special Emergency Notes are current refunding obligations issued pursuant to the Local Budget Law to fund the preparation and execution of a complete program of revaluation of real property.

A successful bidder may purchase for its own account and not with a view to distribution or resale.

Bids submitted by email or electronically are the sole responsibility of the bidder and must be received by Bond Counsel on behalf of the Borough by 11:00 a.m. The Borough accepts no responsibility for the failure of any emailed or electronically submitted bids to be received on time for whatever reason. Except as provided herein under the caption "Procedures Regarding Electronic Bidding," proposals must be submitted on the official form entitled "Proposal for Notes". All bids which are submitted electronically via PARITY pursuant to the procedures described below shall be deemed to constitute a "Proposal for Notes" and shall be deemed to incorporate by reference all of the terms and conditions of this Notice of Note Sale. The submission of a bid electronically via PARITY shall constitute and be deemed the bidder's signature on the Proposal for Notes.

PROCEDURES REGARDING ELECTRONIC BIDDING. Bids may be submitted electronically via PARITY in accordance with this notice, until 11:00 a.m., New Jersey time, on the Bid Date. To the extent any instructions or directions set forth in PARITY conflict with this Notice of Note Sale, the terms of this Notice of Note Sale shall control. For further information about PARITY, potential bidders may contact PARITY at i-Deal at 1359 Broadway, 2nd Floor, New York, New York 10018, telephone (212) 849-5021. The Borough may, but is not obligated to, acknowledge its acceptance in writing of any bid submitted electronically via PARITY. In the event that a bid for the Notes is submitted via PARITY, the bidder further agrees that:

1. The Borough may regard the electronic transmission of the bid through PARITY (including information about the principal amount of the Notes, the price bid for the Notes and any other information included in such transmission) as though the same information were submitted on the "Proposal for Notes" provided by the Borough and executed by a duly authorized signatory of the bidder. If a bid submitted electronically by PARITY is accepted by the Borough, the terms of the "Proposal for Notes" and this Notice of Note Sale and the information that is electronically transmitted through PARITY shall form a contract, and the Successful Bidder or Bidders shall be bound by the terms of such contract.

2. PARITY is not an agent of the Borough, and the Borough shall have no liability whatsoever based on any bidder's use of PARITY, including but not limited to any failure by PARITY to correctly or timely transmit information provided by the Borough or information provided by the bidder.
3. The Borough may choose to discontinue use of electronic bidding via PARITY by issuing a notification to such effect via TM3 News Services, or by other available means, no later than 3:00 p.m., New Jersey time, on the last business date prior to the Bid Date.
4. Once the bids are communicated electronically via PARITY to the Borough as described above, each bid will constitute a Proposal for Notes and shall be deemed to be an irrevocable offer to purchase the Notes on the terms provided in this Notice of Note Sale. For purposes of submitting all Proposals for Notes, whether by electronic mail or electronically via PARITY, the time as maintained on PARITY shall constitute the official time.
5. Each Bidder shall be solely responsible to make necessary arrangements to access PARITY for purposes of submitting its bid in a timely manner and in compliance with the requirements of this Notice of Note Sale. Neither the Borough nor i-Deal shall have any duty or obligation to provide or assure access to any bidder, and neither the Borough nor i-Deal shall be responsible for the proper operation of, or have any liability for any delays or interruptions of, or any damages caused by PARITY. The Borough is using PARITY as a communication mechanism, and not as the Borough's agent, to conduct the electronic bidding for the Notes. By using PARITY, each bidder agrees to hold the Borough harmless from any harm or damages caused to such bidder in connection with its use of PARITY for bidding on the Notes.

The Preliminary Official Statement, dated February 10, 2026 (the "Preliminary Official Statement"), enclosed herewith and available at www.i-DealProspectus.com, is "deemed final", as of its date, within the meaning of Rule 15c2-12 of the Securities and Exchange Commission, but is subject to (a) completion with certain pricing and other information to be made available by the successful bidder for the Notes and (b) amendment. The Preliminary Official Statement, as so revised, will constitute the "final official statement". By the submission of a bid for the Notes, the successful bidder contracts for the receipt of a reasonable number of copies of the final Official Statement within seven business days of the award of the Notes. In order to complete the final Official Statement, the successful bidder must furnish on behalf of the underwriters of the Notes the following information to Bond Counsel and the Borough by email, or overnight delivery received by Bond Counsel and the Borough within 24 hours after the award of the Notes:

- a. Initial Offering Price or yield (expressed as percentages).
- b. Selling Compensation (aggregate total anticipated compensation to the underwriters expressed in dollars).
- c. The identity of the underwriters if the successful bidder is a part of a group or syndicate.
- d. Any other material information necessary for the final Official Statement but not known to the Borough (such as the bidder's purchase of credit enhancement).

Concurrently with the delivery of the Notes, the Chief Financial Officer will deliver to the purchaser of the Notes a certificate stating that, to the best of said official's knowledge, the Preliminary Official Statement did not as of its date and as of the sale date, and the final Official Statement does not, as of its date and the date of delivery of the Notes, contain an untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be included therein for the purpose for which the Preliminary Official Statement or the final Official Statement is to be used or necessary to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, providing such certificate shall not include consideration of information supplied by, or which should have been supplied by, the successful bidder for the Notes.

The Borough will undertake to provide notice of material events pursuant to the limited secondary market disclosure requirements under Rule 15c2-12 for issues with a maturity of 18 months or less.

Additional financial information is available upon request to Denise Bartalotta, Chief Financial Officer, telephone number (201) 825-3400, x239 or email dbartalotta@ramseynj.com.
